

The Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Scheme is a way of supporting anyone coming to the venue living with non-visible disabilities.

What is the Sunflower Scheme?

Some disabilities, conditions or chronic illnesses are not immediately obvious to others. Simply by wearing the sunflower lanyard, visitors are letting everyone know that they might need extra help, understanding, or just more time.

A venue perspective

Training all employees using Sunflower training suite ensures everyone in the business, particularly those who work directly with members of the public, know what the Hidden Disabilities Sunflower is, have a broad understanding of hidden disabilities and are confident to support someone wearing it.

Becoming a member of the Sunflower Scheme

We are encouraging all our partners and organisers to join the scheme; this can be done in five simple steps:

1. Register here as a business member of the scheme.
2. Choose and subscribe to the Sunflower Membership that works best for your business today (available in the memberships section of the online shop).
3. Train your entire workforce using our Sunflower training videos*.
4. Launch and promote your Sunflower Membership to your community as well as the global Sunflower network*
